Are there any guarantees?

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

A word about tax

Usually, you will pay income tax on your share of the Fund's income and capital gains if you hold your investment in a non-registered account. Clarington Sector Fund Inc., a mutual fund corporation of which the Fund is a separate class, may pay to shareholders ordinary dividends annually in December and capital gains dividends annually in February, if necessary to reduce its liability for tax. We will send you a tax slip regarding these dividends.

Also, you will usually pay income tax on any increase in the value of your investment when you redeem your investment. You must calculate the amount of your gains.

Who is this Fund for?

Investors who:

- Seek dividend income with the possibility for capital appreciation*;
- Have medium risk tolerance;
- Plan to invest over the medium to long term.

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk, or consult your advisor.

IA Clarington Dividend Growth Fund may be more appropriate for registered investment accounts. Ask your advisor about which option may be suitable for you.

*Distributions on this series may include a return of capital, which can erode the value of your investment.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series F6 shares of the Fund. The Fund has other series. The fees and expenses are different for each series. Ask your advisor about other series that may be suitable for you.

Sales charges

This series is sold with no sales charge and no redemption fee. However, your dealer may charge you a fee in respect of your investment; any such fee would be set out in an agreement between you and your dealer.

Fund Expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns. As at December 31, 2010, the series' expenses were 0.98% of the net asset value. This equals $9.80 a year for every $1,000 invested.
