What does the Fund invest in?

The Fund aims to achieve long-term capital appreciation by obtaining an enhanced exposure to equity markets around the world through the use of derivatives.

Top 10 Investments (January 27, 2012)

Because the Fund is new, its top 10 investments are not available. The Fund will be required to prepare a list of its top 25 holdings on a quarterly basis. These reports will be available on our website, www.iaclarington.com.

Investment mix (% – January 27, 2012)

Because the Fund is new, its investment mix is not available. The Fund will be required to provide a summary of its investment mix on a quarterly basis. These reports will be available on our website, www.iaclarington.com.

How has the Fund performed?

This section tells you how the series has performed since its inception. Returns are shown after fees and expenses have been deducted. These fees and expenses reduce the series' returns.

It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the Fund will perform in the future. Also, your actual after-tax return will depend on your personal tax situation.

Average return

We are unable to show performance because the series is less than 12 months old.

Year-by-year returns (%)

We are unable to show performance because the series has not existed for a full calendar year.

How risky is it?

When you invest in a fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. The Fund is new, and we expect that the Fund's risk will be high. For a description of the specific risks of the Fund, see the Fund's simplified prospectus.

Are there any guarantees?

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

A word about tax

Usually, you will pay income tax on your share of the Fund's income and capital gains if you hold your investment in a non-registered account. The Fund will distribute any income and capital gains annually in December such that it is not liable for income tax under the Income Tax Act (Canada). We will send you a tax slip that shows your share of the Fund's income and capital gains.

Also, you will usually pay income tax on any increase in the value of your investment when you redeem your investment. You must calculate the amount of your gains.

Who is this Fund for?

Investors who:

- Seek capital appreciation through exposure to global equity markets;
- Have high risk tolerance;
- Plan to invest over the long term.

This fund is intended for investment by other mutual funds and institutional investors.

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk, or consult your advisor.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series I units of the Fund.

Sales charges

This series is sold with no sales charge. Any redemption fees will be set out in the agreement between us and the investor.

Fund Expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns. The series did not exist as of December 31, 2011 and so a management expense ratio and trading expense ratio are not yet available for it. The series' expenses are made up of the operating expenses, trading costs and taxes. Because this series is new, its operating expenses and trading costs are not yet available.

Other Fees

You may have to pay other fees when you sell or switch units of the Fund. The Fund does not pay us a management fee in respect of Series I units. Any management fees that you are required to pay us will be set out in the agreement between you and us. Management fees are negotiated and paid directly by the investor in Series I units.

Fees	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	2.00% of the value of the units you sell or switch within 30 days of buying them. You may be charged 2.00% of the value of the units you sell or switch between 31 and 90 days of purchase. This fee goes to the Fund.
Switch fee	Nil

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy securities of a mutual fund within two business days after you receive a copy of the simplified prospectus; or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours of receiving confirmation of your purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory. For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
